Dear Customer,

We hope you weren't unlucky enough to get sunburnt on the only two sunny days in May! As June is named after the Roman Goddess of marriage, many couples choose this month to tie the knot, so if you are attending one or are lucky Enough to be the starring act we have a wide range of treats to help you look fantastic. From a quick Fake Bake spray Tan to banish the pale winter look to a set of fantastic Hollywood Lashes semi-permanent eyelash extensions; maybe A manicure with a choice of colour from our wide range of OPI polishes or perhaps a sole foot delight pedicure to Nourish tired, aching feet and make them look their best when you reach your honeymoon destination.

Strawberry Herbal Back Cleanse; the June Special Offer

If you missed it last year we have re-created this sumptuous fruity fusion of treatments for you to enjoy. As always, your treatment will take place in one of our stunning candle-lit treatment rooms surrounded by the caressing scent of pure essential oils. This invigorating treatment begins with a warm and zesty lime compress on your feet, followed by a full body brushing to soften skin, before exfoliating your back with the Lime and Ginger Salt Glow. You will then enjoy a mini back massage before the Fruit Active Rejuvenating Mask is applied to leave skin glowing and the finish with Exotic Island Flower Body Balm will have you feeling silky smooth. Then it's the turn of your face for some attention as we treat tired skin to a Luxurious Papaya Boosting Facial. Finally for the proverbial icing on the cake, you can benefit from a hydrating hand or foot treatment to leave your mind and body totally refreshed and ready to face the world again.

All this divine pampering is just £48.00! Or if you wanted to extend the pleasure why not add cuticle work and a file and polish for either your fingers or toes for just £10.00 extra? Ultimate indulgence!

Coming soon – Electrolysis

You asked – we listened. We hadn't realised quite how many of you were interested in permanent hair removal but judging by the amount of requests we've had there is certainly a demand out there. We have been investigating the products on offer and have settled on the highly respected Sterex Blend system featuring both Thermolysis and Galvanic methods for the ultimate in speed and comfort. New Staff Member

Now the team is complete. We've been getting so busy recently that the only answer was to add another therapist to our talented line up. This month we would like to introduce Georgia Allard. Georgia has joined us from the Hythe Imperial and brings with her a wealth of spa treatment experience. By way of welcome she would like to offer a free Elemis Wellbeing Massage when you book an Elemis Skin Specifics Facial for £42.

Available Monday, Wednesday and Fridays throughout June.

With Georgia's arrival we will be trialling Monday opening from 9.30 to 6.

That's nearly all for this month but just room to remind you that Father's day is on the 20th June so if you want to get him something different how about an Elemis Deep Tissue Back Massage at £24.50 to iron out those troublesome knots, a thoroughly relaxing Elemis Face and Scalp treatment for £25 or something from the Elemis range or Men's grooming products that start at just £17. Until next time,

Martyna, Nicola, Nicole and Georgia.
